

X-ray Transform and Lens Rigidity When There is Trapping

(2 Nov 2016)

Colin Guillarmou

Université Paris-Sud

Geodesic X-ray transform consists in integrating a function along all possible geodesics joining boundary points over a manifold with boundary. The speaker will discuss recent results about injectivity of X-ray transform and reconstruction formula when the metric is negatively curved but has non-trivial trapped set.