

Inverse Scattering on Surfaces

(2 Dec 2016)

Leo Tzou

University of Sydney

On a surface with Euclidean ends the speaker and his collaborator recover the magnetic Schrödinger operator, up to gauge equivalence, by wave scattering. This problem turns out to be intimately related to the topology of the surface and the speaker will show how classical index theorems such as Riemann-Roch can play a significant role in understanding this relationship.